Speech Delegates to Arrive For Tournament on Campus

Students will arrive here today from the entire Northwest, to participate in the sixth annual Northwest Tau Kappa Alpha speech tournament Thursday, Friday, and Saturday. The contestants are entered in debate, original oratory, extemporaneous speaking, and interpretative reading.

The debate question for colleges this year is: "Resolved: That the Federal Government should adopt a permanent program of wage and price controls."

The parliamentary style debating is to be used, in which a twenty-minute discussion period, open to both sides, occurs following the constructive speeches and preceding the summary speeches. Each team will participate in six rounds of debate.

The eight winning teams will participate in round seven, the semi-finals. Straight elimination will apply in the quarter-finals and finals.

Orations must be original and from MSU . . .

Marjorie Lovberg, a Delta Gamma from Missoula, is a freshman who has already participated in several Masquer productions. She is majoring in drama and will present a scene from "Saint Joan," by Shaw, for her Miss Montana pageant talent.

Donna Nooney, who is majoring in music, will display two talents in the pageant. She will present a vocal solo and also a piano selection. Miss Nooney, whose home is in Missoula, is a freshman.

Stassen Leads in Pennsylvania

Philadelphia, Pa.—General Eisenhower has taken a runaway lead over former Minnesota Governor Harold Stassen in Pennsylvania's residential primary.

With almost 1,300 of the state's 415 precincts reporting, Eisenhower had 124,000 votes to 16,000 for Stassen. Senator Robert Taft is getting scattered write-in votes. He had 8,700.

Early returns also give two pro-Eisenhower delegates slight leads in Allegheny county, where the only Taft-Eisenhower delegate fight is being held.

On the Democratic side—which is strictly a write-in contest—Senator Estes Kefauver has more than 10,000 votes. President Truman is second with 263, Eisenhower third with 114.

There was no popularity contest in New York, but party leaders favored Democrat Averell Harriman and Republican Dwight Eisenhower. That's probably the way the delegates selected today will vote.

Harriman stepped into the Democratic race as an active candidate today.

Washington—A president of the United States is facing impeachment proceedings for the first time in more than half a century.

Republican Congressman Robert Hale of Maine has introduced a resolution calling for impeachment of President Truman for seizing the steel industry. But there is little chance that the proceedings actually will be started—and even less chance that they might result in the President's trial before the Senate.

Washington—President Fred Saigh of the St. Louis Cardinals has been indicted on charges of income tax evasion. Saigh is accused of evading nearly $40,000 in personal income taxes.

Michigan—The warden of the Southern Michigan prison has agreed to meet 11 demands by 173 mutinous convicts who are barricaded in a cell block with 10 guards as hostages.

Meanwhile, 231 rebel prisoners at Rahway, N. J., have ended their siege of a barracks after 113 hours. Eight hostages were released.

Barbecued Buffalo Aber Day

Barbecued buffalo will be the specialty served Aber day afternoon at 5:30 between the Library and the Student Union building. Besides buffalo the students will have their choice of barbecued beef or pork along with potato salad, cup cakes, coffee, and buns.

G. M. DeJarnette will be in charge of the barbecuing, with the Bear Paws as his sidekicks. Mr. DeJarnette, a barbecue specialist, has supervised operations for the past several Aber days. The food will be served at the pits by the Spurs. The "M" club sees that the barbecue pits are kept fired up and in proper condition.

Don't forget, faculty members and married students, you are cordially invited to bring your wives to any or all Aber day functions.

Members of Alpha Phi Omega service fraternity will serve the noon lunch at 11:30 which will be served at the same place. The noon meal will consist of hot dogs, potato chips, ice cream, and cool aid.

All the food for Aber day festivities has been donated by the sororities and fraternities. Bob Lamley, "M" club member, is in charge of the food committee for Aber day.

Polk Introduces Candidates At Panhel Tea

Several foreign students were also introduced by Mrs. Theodore Jacobs, Missoula. Pouring were Mrs. Gordon Castle, Mrs. Jacobs, Mrs. R. H. Jesse, and Dr. Maurine Clow.

Jamie Brennan, Missoula, and Barbara Schunk, Billings, president and vice-president of college panhellenic, were in the receiving line. City panhellenic officers in the line were Mrs. Jack Cuthbert, Mrs. William Coldiron, Mrs. Albert Muskett, and Mrs. William Curran.

APPLICATIONS DUE MONDAY

A last call for applications for Sentinel editor and business manager was issued today by Juanita Kugler, chairman of Publications board.

The applications are due before 3:30 p.m. next Monday, according to Miss Kugler. At 3:30 the applicants must appear before Publications board to be interviewed, she said.

Three Miss Montana candidates from Eastern Montana college will arrive on campus tomorrow to participate in the final rehearsal for Friday's pageant.

Fred Cunningham will be master of ceremonies for the pageant, and the Spurs will usher. Gib Leibinger, Miles City, will be organist.

PE Class Will Supervise Rural Children Play Day

Missoula county will have its ninth annual Play day for rural school children April 25, according to Kenneth Skemp, publicity chairman. The MSU physical education programs class is responsible for the organization and administration of the yearly event.

Because this annual visit to the university campus has proved so popular, Skemp said, the children of Mineral and Ravalli counties will have a Play day of their own this year. He said it is scheduled for May 9.

For the past three weeks, the rural schools of the three counties have been working on games and dances, using the theme of Robin Hood and his men of Sherwood Forest. Assisting them are the 41 students of the physical education class and students of the music school.

Four hundred ninety children from 14 Missoula county schools and 312 children from 11 Mineral and Ravalli county schools are expected.

This year, as in the past, everyone is invited to attend the all-day festivities, especially the parents of those children participating, Skemp said.

All morning the children will either dance or swim in the men's gymnasium, and in the afternoon they will play games. "There is no competition in the games," Skemp said, "just fun."

The children will be entertained by university students during the noon hour.

AIR SOCIETY TO MEET

The Arnold Air Society will meet tonight at 7:30. The meeting will be in Room 3 of the ROTC building.

Musings of Aber Day Past and Present . . .

Aber day has slipped by again, hasn't it? Well the Kaimin offer its condolence to all those heavy-headed people who every year seem to get carried away with the eagerness of Aber spirit. Just a tip to those who possess the spirit of overeagerness: the Aber day big wheels are prolonging the day just to wear you out.

In the past few days of Aber anticipation there has been considerable discussion about the tradition of keeping Aber day a secret. Many voice the opinion, "Why keep it secret?" Sure, make the annual day known to every one, so that the students may go wild from noon of the day before until midnight of Aber day. So that the average unconcerned student and cohorts may plan a little trip away from campus for a day and half. This would spoil the tradition, purpose, and spirit that Daddy Aber endowed upon MSU.

Aber day isn't what it used to be. For in the days of yore spirit included more than a high court and a greased pole climb.

In the second Aber day (1916), two would-be elopers were snatched from a Bitterroot train and forced to take part in the work and play of the day.

Several years ago some mischievous students took the trouble to swipe the clapper out of the Main hall bell before the M club and Bear Paws could accomplish their early morning Aber deed. And yes, and also in the days of yore the foresters used to plant the green flag of the Forestry school atop the Law school.

Publication of "Campus Rakings" was so filthy one year (not that it isn't every year), that Publications board seriously considered banning it. "When college students consider something filthy, then brother it is."

Enough of the musings, but turning back to the present, the Kaimin wishes Aber day would hurry a bit—we are tired of window peekers and the incessant ringing of the telephone. When Aber day does come the bubble of anticipation will have grown so combustible that maybe the foresters flag may once again catch the Hellgate breeze from atop the Law school. Elopers might again be shanghaied from a train. And maybe the Main hall bell clapper will disappear again.

In a way the Kaimin hopes the student body is so pooped out from anticipation that the cleanup will be the limit of their physical ability. Who said that? You know we wouldn't want to spoil a party day.—L.K.

Letters to the Editor . . .

Independents Must Match Political Power of Greeks

Dear Editor:

Opinion on the recent proposed changes in student government seems to range from the apathetic to the vitriolic. Nevertheless, I would like to repeat what I consider to be the best parts of three group discussions about student government on this campus.

Eliminate the offices of class delegate to Central board and class treasurer. Put the remaining twelve class officers (President, Vice-President, and secretary of each class) on Central board. These small changes would solve the problems of "no work" for the class officers and "no prestige" for the title of Central board delegate. These changes could be made within the existing structure and wouldn't disturb the complacent conservative.

The plan of representation of the different schools on Central board has its points but it seems like six of one and half a dozen of the other which should be represented, the different schools or the different classes.

The proponents of the senate plan seem to have two main objectives. They want to stimulate more interest among the independents and pull more students into student government. Let's face it. The routine affairs of a student government would interest a group this size for about one meeting.

Finally, wresting the power from the Greeks can be done in only one way, no matter what the governmental set-up. Independents would have to match fraternity organization and interest—even though their interest is mainly aimed at gaining greater glory for their respective "wine, dine and recline" clubs.

Lindeman Speaks Out for Support Of Student Fund

Dear Editor:

Two weeks ago today those university students who spared study time to attend convo heard a variety of students explain the international Point Five program for students. This program is one of sharing of books, clothing, money, and ideas among students and faculty around the world, through the only agency set up to do this—WSSF.

WSSF—World Student Service Fund—hasn't been accompanied by the usual publicity campaign associated with drives at MSU. This has resulted in one unfortunate thing: students have received the impression that because it wasn't publicized, it wasn't important, and therefore they didn't give.

Darn it, it is important. WSSF needs money badly to support universities all over the non-communist world. The need is so desperate that students and universities in such countries as Germany, France, India, where funds for students are still low, are giving themselves.

WSSF aims at individual contact throughout their program. We didn't desire a vast, but impersonal publicity drive. We wanted the solicitors to contact every person in the living groups, and explain the thing on an individual basis. That's the reason I'm expressing this thought of individualism in a letter, rather than in a news story.

Last year MSU gave over $900 to this program. WSSF's budget is up this year. Last year we aimed at $1 per person, and got that from many students. Let's do it again. When you are contacted this next week, or if you have been and can reconsider your share in the sharing, please remember that it takes lots of dollars to keep WSSF moving.

Alumna Appointed To Service Post

Alumna Barbara McCoullough, now Mrs. K. Ross Toole, was recently appointed home service representative of the Helena division of the Montana Power company.

A native of Eureka, Mrs. Toole was graduated in 1943 with a degree in home economics. Following graduation, she taught for three years at the Ballard School for Brides in New York City. She returned to MSU as a director of South hall during the spring quarter of 1947 while her husband, now secretary of the Montana Historical society, was working for his master's degree.

University Librarian Reports On Opportunities in Field

BY TOM FARRINGTON

"There is a real opportunity in the library field for your men and women," reports Kathleen Campbell, University head librarian. Out of 456,000 scholars receiving bachelor degrees better in 1951, only 1,926 were awarded from library schools she said.

One month ago, Miss Campbell sent letters to all the library schools in the United States asking for suggestions of employment here at MSU. "Only three helpful replies. The others could offer us nothing."

A BITTER BIT

"A college student is someone who goes to college for four years and then graduates and works for someone who went to grade school for four years."

Service Jobs Now Open

The State department has announced a written examination for the selection of foreign service officers, according to Dr. W. P. Clark, Dean of the Graduate school. The deadline for the receipt of applications is July 1.

To be eligible for appointment, an applicant must be between the ages of 20 and 31, have been a citizen of the United States for 10 years, and if married, be married to an American citizen. The applicant must also pass an examination in one of the following languages: French, German, Portuguese, Russian, or Spanish.

From 200 to 300 officers will be appointed, if that many qualified persons take the examination. Starting salary will range from $4,000 to $5,000, depending upon age, experience, and qualifications, Dr. Clark said.

Juniors who meet the age requirements can take the examination in September, and if they pass, take an oral examination in the spring of 1953 for appointment at that time. Both men and women are eligible for appointment.

She indicated that other schools were receiving similar replies. "This means that few jobs are being spread among the many."

Most top library administrative positions in the country are held by men. Miss Campbell added that four outstanding library positions were recently offered to women—Chief Librarian of the Chicago public library; State Librarian of California; Chief Librarian of the Baltimore public library; and Director of the Library School of Wisconsin University.

In order to be recognized as a fully trained librarian, a person must have a bachelor's degree in Arts or Sciences and must graduate from an accredited library school. Altogether, there are 11 library schools in the United States and 2 in Canada which are accredited by the American Library association.

Upon one year's training a graduate receives a Master of library science degree and usually the $3290 a year which is recommended by the American Library Association. Doctorate degrees can be had by further study at the University of Chicago and University of Illinois.

As a final note, Miss Campbell stated that MSU is a member of the A.L.A. and meets the requirements demanded of a member. It is the only member college in the northern region between Minneapolis and Seattle.

As chief librarian Miss Campbell has been here since September 1939 and has been on the A.L.A. council since July 1948.

Strong Redskin Baseball Team Expected Friday

BY JACK ZYGMOND

It will be baseball for hundreds of university fans this Friday when the defending Western Division Grizzly home season with a scheduled doubleheader at Campbell Field.

Arriving inclement weather, it could be an enjoyable week end.

Grizzly baseball partisans. The week's contests were close, but decided by one run, and we promise to be the same.

Montana's 4-3 win was the first win any Western Division team had taken from the Utes in years of play. Utah copped the second contest with Montana 8-7 in a hitter's display.

It will not be the same defining Western Division Utah that will make its appearance on Campbell field. Stars that made Utah top ranking in NCAA playoffs are graduated or now playing professional baseball.

Only a few standouts from last year are returning. A host of freshman prospects, like shortstop Don Geis, a clever and fancy fielder, a power at the plate, and a former Utah high school star, lead the Utah lineup and label the Redskins as contenders again this year.

Returning moundsmen Basil Williams and Vic Stuckenschneider, along with Carl Astel, who hurled an 8-7 victory over Montana at Utah, give the Redskins pitching strength. Williams pitched the opening contest against Montana, allowed only 6 hits, but lost 4-3 in a victory copped by Gene Carlson. One of the six hits was a two-run homer by Bobby Byrne.

Stuckenschneider is reportedly one of Utah's most capable moundsmen. Season long he has been afflicted with a sore arm and has seen no mound duty. If his arm responds to treatment he could see action against the Grizzlies here.

Others to look for are Bruce Goodrich, the hoop star whom many thought as under-rated last winter. He will patrol one outfield position. He hits hard and has a strong throwing arm.

Catching for the Redskins will be an unheralded performer who momentarily became their star last week. He's Dick Bubak, who smashed a three-run homer for the Redskins, a homer that brought them from behind to an 8-7 victory.

Today's Softball Schedule

I-M SWIM MEET TO BE HELD FRIDAY, SATURDAY

The annual intramural swimming meet will be held in the University pool this Friday and Saturday. George Cross, intramural director, said yesterday.

The meet will begin at 4:15 Friday afternoon, and the finals will be held at 9:15 Saturday morning, he said.

Zygmund Receives Highest Hoop Vote For I-M All-Stars

Jumbo hall's Jack Zygmund received 12 votes to lead all other contenders for the intramural all-star basketball team.

The results of the balloting were released early this week by George Cross, intramural director. Members of the intramural sports board, the intramural basketball officials, and the managers of the teams made the all-star selections.

The other members of the team and the number of votes they received are Jerry Johnson of the Phi Deltas, 7; Nick Wolf of the Sigma Chis, 7; Tom Campbell of the Phi Deltas, 6; and Ralph Ripke of the Sigma Nus, 6.

Others who received more than one vote were Johnson of the APO's, 4; Jack Scott of the PEK's, 4; Sam Davis of the SAE's, 3; and Pinsoneault of the Ski club, 3.

Intercollegiate Track Meet Here Saturday

BY BOB CHESNOVER

The state intercollegiate track meet will be this Saturday on Dornblaser field, starting at 1:45 with the field events.

Entries have been received from Montana State, Eastern Montana, and Rocky Mountain. Entry blanks are not due until later in the week and it is quite possible that Western Montana, Carroll, and Montana Mines will enter before the deadline.

Eastern Montana has a squad of 20 men coming to the intercollegiate meet.

The Bobcats of Montana State college are boasting a 26-man squad. In 1950 the Bobcats were Rocky Mountain conference champions, but had to give the sport up last year because of lack of funds. Coach John Breeden has had to start from scratch in building this year's track team, except for one man who returns from his 1950 championship team.

The Rocky Mountain Bears will sport a 6-man squad and have entered these men in eight events Saturday.

Coach Harry Adams said he expects a nine-man squad from Western Montana to enter some time this week.

The Missoula Spartans and the Great Falls Bisons will also tangle in a track meet on Dornblaser field on Saturday starting at one o'clock.

SX Downs Jumbo; SN Beats PDT; South Defeats Corbin

The Sigma Chis handed Jumbo hall a stunning 11-4 defeat, the Sigma Nus edged the Phi Deltas, 9-8, and South hall outscored Corbin hall, 31-27, in softball games yesterday.

Sigma Chi handed Jumbo hall its third defeat in three years of intramural competition as John McKown pitched five-hit ball. Jumbo hall's Dale Sterner allowed only seven hits, and was the loser.

With a slim one-run lead going into the last half of the seventh inning, Ralph Ripke, the Nu's ace pitcher, retired the side in one-two-three order as the Phi Deltas vainly tried to rally. Bob Artz and Tom Ring hit home runs for the Nus, while Jerry Johnson walloped a four-bagger for the Phi Deltas. LeRoy Baumgarth was the losing pitcher.

In the Corbin hall-South hall tussle, it was a bevy of hits, runs, errors, and misjudged fly-balls that caused the 58-run marathon. Chuck Knutson pitched the entire game for South hall, and was the winner. Dick Trinastich started for Corbin, but was relieved by Chuck Swain. It took two hours and 15 minutes to play the seven-inning game.

A marmoset is a small monkey.

Utah Teams Tough Foes for Grizzlies

Although they are minus many last year's members, the Utah is and golf teams, champions of the western division of the Sky-conference last year, shape up as tough foes for the Grizzlies when they meet here Friday afternoon.

Each Theron Parmelee's tennis consists of only three men in last year's championship, plus a number of sophomores and freshmen.

erry Glade, singles champion of the western division last year, the Utes number one man. He is the conference crown to Peyton Benham of Denver last year, but is still regarded as one of the top netmen in the Rocky Mountain area.

The other two returning lettermen are Eddie Anderson and Al Wall. Bernard Tietelbaum and Y Zaitzeff are two members of last year's freshman squad who have looked good for the this year.

ive Reeve, the intramural net at Utah last year, has aided team, as has freshman sensation Gus Teseros, who was the state high school champion last year. Other members of the are Chuck Wyatt, Bob Heath, Jack Hansen.

Glade, Tietelbaum, Anderson, nwall, Larry Zaitzeff, and Teseros all garnered singles victories in the Montana meet last week. The doubles combinations Glade-Zaitzeff, Anderson-nwall, and Hansen-Wyatt scored victories against the Grizzlies.

ly two returning lettermen are on hand to bolster the golf team's efforts this year. Tom Hansen, team manager and the number one player last year, and left-handed George Strike are the only back. Hansen shot a 70 last year when the Utes beat the Grizzlies 11-7, at Salt Lake City.

Bob Fowler and Gary Peck, two standing golfers from last year's man team, will help the Utes this year, as will three freshmen—n Rackley, Bob Gadis, and Garriguls, who were members of the South high school team at Lake City which took the championship three years in a row.

her freshmen on the squad are Dotson, Bob Crofts, Cec Bohn, Fred Nelson.

New Bus Ad Fraternity To be Started

Business administration students, faculty, and Montana business men will turn out May 1 to welcome a new honorary fraternity at a banquet to be sponsored by Alpha Kappa Psi and Phi Chi Theta, men's and women's business professional fraternities.

The installation banquet, which will be at 7 p.m. in the Governor's room of the Florence hotel, will be highlighted by the presentation of awards and scholarships to outstanding students and the honoring of Montana business leaders. Tickets for the banquet can be purchased in Dean Theodore H. Smith's office for $2.50 a plate on or before Saturday, April 26.

For Top Business Students

The new fraternity is Beta Gamma Sigma, a national business honorary for top business students. The Alpha of Montana chapter will be installed by Richard Kozelka, dean of the University of Minnesota business administration school. Dean Kozelka will present the charter to MSU's president, Carl McFarland, who will give a talk on the importance of scholarship.

Dean Smith urged that all business students attend the banquet where they will have an opportunity to meet business men of the state.

Only a limited number of women and men business students are admitted to Beta Gamma Sigma, depending on their scholastic record. Students in the upper ten per cent of the senior class or the upper three per cent of the junior class will be eligible for admittance to the local chapter.

Phi Chi Theta, women's business fraternity, will announce Montana's outstanding business or professional woman of the year, and honor the most versatile Phi Chi Theta member.

Man of the Year

Alpha Kappa Psi, men's business honorary, will name the Montana business or professional man of the year. A life membership will be presented to the past president of Alpha Kappa Psi and to the member who has done outstanding service for the fraternity.

Several Montana business organizations will award scholarships to MSU business administration majors. The organizations that will hand out scholarships at the banquet are the Montana Society of Certified Public Accountants, the Montana Bankers association, the Montana Automobile Dealers association, and the Montana Building and Loan association.

KKG, Synadelphic Win Over North, AP in I-M Softball

Kappa Kappa Gamma finished the round robin tournament undefeated with a shutout over North hall No. 2, and Synadelphic stopped Alpha Phi in softball yesterday.

The Kappas blanked North hall 14-0, but the player causing the most sideline comment was North's shortstop Mickey Hogarty, who was playing her second game of the season. Her defensive play was a big factor in holding down the Kappa score, particularly in the first two innings. Kappa pitcher Willie Williams, helped by good fielding support, let only four players reach base. Betty Barbee, Kappa fielder, hit the game's only home run.

Synadelphic's Mary Ellen Woodward held Alpha Phi to one run in the first four innings, as Synadelphic won 12-7. The game was the final round robin game for both teams. Synadelphic finished with three wins and one loss, while Alpha Phi had one win and three losses. Mary Ellen Woodward homered twice, but was called out on the first hit when she failed to touch a base. Synadelphic's good fielding support was one of the deciding factors in the game.
